

Money, Markets, Mud and The Mind Conference

Thursday, 5th August, 2010

Bart Davidson

(BioNutrient Solutions) is a leader in the field of soil and plant nutrition. He is committed to enabling growers as they achieve profitability and sustainability in both the short and long term.

Charles Brett

(Kirribilli Pastoral Co) owns and manages dryland farming enterprises in North West NSW and Southern Qld. Charles employs a disciplined financial model of production.

Pete Johnson

(Left Field Solutions) is a trader and financial analyst of acclaim in the grains and cotton industry with a focus on keeping producers ahead of the curve and able to make intelligent informed decisions.

Robert Pekin

(Food Connect) is an advocate of Community Shared Agriculture (CSA) which promotes a relationship between farmers and those that consume their food. Food Connect is an award winning social business that works in collaboration with farms to deliver the best food efficiently, affordably and equitably.

Tom Nicholas

(Healthy Soils Australia) is Chairman of a NGO group seconded to drive policy outcomes toward regenerative agriculture practices.

David Hanlon

(The Right Mind) is an international business strategy and marketing consultant. He works with a strategic mindset and builds strength in people's abilities through challenge and support.

Money & Mud

“Managing the Nutrient Cycle Makes Cents”

Is it possible to grow more from less? What are the tools? What does it look like?

“How Do You Profitably Farm 10,000 acres with a Ute and a Wheelbarrow?”

A growers perspective on what it takes to be profitable and sustainable in practical terms in a broadacre operation.

Money & Markets

“Marketing your Crop - What does the Predictable Future Hold”

Growing the crop has been hard enough, let alone a volatile market... so what is the predictable future for cotton & grain?

“Selling your Crop and Moving from Price Taker to Price Setter”

Would moving from price taker to price setter completely upend your farming enterprises viability? It has been done and this is the challenge for grains.

“Regenerating Our Landscape”

What's happening in Canberra - An initiative for change driven by Former Governor General, Major General Michael Jeffery.

The Mind

“Personal Capacity and Mental Toughness for Greatness”

How do we form the right mental attitude to make the right decisions and implement change?

“Making the right choices at the right time can make an enormous difference. In good times everyone can look clever, however it is decisions in a difficult environment that differentiates those that succeed and fail.” John Nicolis

Time & Place

10am Registration for a 10:30am Start
The Macintyre Room, O’Shea’s Royal Hotel, Goondiwindi

Cost & Inclusions

A fee of $195 (including GST) covers the full inspiring and thought provoking day including lunch, afternoon tea, dinner and refreshments. A “Money, Markets, Mud and The Mind” Conference Kit will be supplied.

Registration

Complete the registration form below and fax back to Suzanne on 1800 625 025. Registration and full payment due prior to Friday, 30th of July.

Name:

Email:

Phone: Mobile:

Postal Address:

A tax invoice will be sent to you once registration has been received.

Remember to book your accommodation and enjoy a great evening!

Sponsored by

Insight is a firm built on providing its clients with the highest level of professional accounting and business services. From this foundation, the firm has expanded the expectation for what an accounting firm should offer its clients. Insight works with clients to help them move their financial success beyond the farm gate.